

Free Program Offerings from
Col. Matthew W. Nahorn & the New Indian Ridge Museum

If you are interested in having Col. Nahorn speak to your group, please contact us via the form on this website, www.newindianridgemuseum.org or email us at nirm89@gmail.com

Following is a list of programs that he provides:

"Indian Ridge Museum - From Old to New: A History of the Indian Ridge Museum" (long and short versions available)

"Early Amherst, Ohio - Prehistory to Early Historic History"

"Early Northern Ohio Prehistory - from Paleo to Erie"

"What is a Watershed - Land-use Affects Water Quality and Stream Bank Integrity; Focusing on the Beaver Creek Watershed"

"A Thirst for History - Amherst's Old Spring & Rediscovered Braun Brewery"

"Academy of the Ridges: A Brief History of Lake Ridge Academy"

"Glover's Cave: The Archaeological Site"

"The Eastern Bluebird – A Conservation Story"

"Vermilion River Watershed: A Watershed Profile and Brief History"

"Residents of the Historic Shupe Homestead & Mystery at Oak Point"